Jay,

Reading one of the lessons learned in Ottawa (where everyone is enjoying the benefit of hindsight) is that the police directed convoy vehicles into private areas which eventually became stronghold occupied territory of the protestors and police had to seek permission from the property owners to evict the protestors.

Given that, perhaps Jen Crosby or someone of your choice can identify similar properties along the huron church corridor and surrounding area and speak with the property owners to ensure they do NOT want these protestors on their properties. It gives us the option of reducing the perceived prospect of long-term comfort for the protestors.

Jay
